"Flickering of the Flame"

Lecture at 7:00pm in the Cathedral Centre: Martin Luther compared the invention of the printing press in 1450 to "the flickering of the flame that burns before the end of this age." He was one of the few to realize that he was living through a revolution - one that would give birth to a new world. Two silver chalices representing the contentious history of the Lutheran Church in Canada are being used in the Service as symbols of reconciliation, restoration and resurrection as we take joy in the Waterloo Declaration of 2001 and the Full Communion relationship between Anglicans and Evangelical Lutherans in Canada. The Service will be followed by a procession to First Evangelical Lutheran Church on Bond Street.
